
JOSEPH QUINN

PROFILE

Diligent computer science student from Vanderbilt with a foundation in programming and problem-solving. Having taken part in the Lockheed Martin explorers program, I gained hands-on experience collaborating with industry experts. Im eager to apply my skills and am currently seeking opportunities to collaborate on exciting tech projects and contribute to the industry's growth.

EXPERIENCE

CREW LEAD, AMC; AURORA, CO – 2021-2023

Diagnosing and resolving technical issues promptly to minimize disruptions during screenings, demonstrating proficiency in handling various projection equipment and formats.

VOLUNTEER

SECORCARES; PARKER, CO – 2019-2023

Assisting in community outreach programs by participating in food drives, fundraisers, and events aimed at raising awareness and support for the food bank's mission.

INTERNSHIPS

ENGINEERING POST, LOCKHEED MARTIN; LITTLETON, CO – 2019-2020

Participated in a specialized program aimed at providing students with an immersive, behind-the-scenes exposure to aerospace engineering and cutting-edge technology. This opportunity involved the development of engineering projects under the guidance and mentorship of experienced Lockheed Martin professionals.

EDUCATION

ARAPAHOE COMMUNITY COLLEGE, LITTLETON, CO – ASSOCIATES OF SCIENCE, 2023

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY, NASHVILLE, TN – COMPUTER SCIENCE MAJOR, PRESENT

SKILLS

Stable foundation in Frontend and Backend technologies: Java, Python, HTML, CSS, Javascript, R, Git..

AWARDS

NATIONAL HONORS SOCIETY; PARKER, CO – COLORADO EARLY COLLEGES